

NRPL REQUEST FOR IMAGE REPRODUCTION POLICY

Reproductions from the Local History Collection of the New Rochelle Public Library are available according to the following policy, procedure and fee schedule. The Library reserves the right to limit or prohibit reproductions for reasons that may include but are not limited to the condition of the material, donor restrictions, and copyright.

All copies sold for personal use are made with the understanding that the reproductions will be used in accordance with US copyright law and fair use provisions (and all other application laws and regulations), and are for one time use only. The individual requesting the reproduction assumes all responsibility for infraction of copyright and of any use exceeding fair use.*

*Copyright Status Undetermined

The New Rochelle Public Library (Library) is unable to determine the copyright status for many of the images in its collection. Therefore, the Library is acting only as an owner of the physical image, unless the library has in its possession a written conveyance of copyright from the copyright owner.

Warning concerning copyright restriction: The copyright law of U.S. (Title 17, United State Code) governs the making of photocopies of other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying request if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright law.

The Library is not responsible for either determining the copyright status of the image or for securing copyright permission. Works copied from the Library may be used only for private study, scholarship or research. Possession of a Library image does not constitute permission to use it or permission for anyone else to use or copy.
