

Annotated List of New Rochelle Residents Who Died While Serving in Active Duty in WWI

This list of men and women who died of wounds, accidents, or disease while in serving America in active duty during World War I was compiled from the "In Memoriam" list that appeared in the 1920 book, New Rochelle: Her Part in the Great War, and from newspaper articles that appeared in the Standard Star. We continue to seek basic information about each individual and to ensure accuracy as best possible.
