If the Library closes due to an emergency (e.g. weather), all meetings are canceled. The Library will inform the media about closings.

Meetings of all types are free and open to the public. Unless specifically approved by the Library Director, no fees, dues or donations may be charged or solicited for any program. Meeting rooms may not be used by outside organizations or individuals for commercial and/or for-profit purposes, including investment seminars, sales/service demonstrations, programs by competitive health care insurance entities, etc. The facilities may not be used for meetings of political parties, campaigns, or religious services. The facilities may not be used for fund raising purposes, except by the Friends of the Library, the New Rochelle Public Library Foundation or the Partnership for the Huguenot Children's Library. No promotional materials to solicit business may be distributed at meetings, except as part of identifying and recognizing a sponsor for its support of a non-profit event. Programs may not disrupt the use of the Library by others. All persons using the meeting rooms are subject to all Library rules and regulations.

Meeting rooms are available at the standard rate during Library's hours of operation. There is a fee for overtime use of the Library. Meeting room usage must not commence later than thirty (30) minutes prior to the schedule time for Library closing on the date of meeting room use.

Rooms may be booked on an occasional basis, no more than six months in advance. They may not be reserved for regular meetings (i.e. weekly, monthly, etc.), except as specifically approved by the Library Director. The Library reserves the right to determine the number of events that will be held simultaneously at its facilities. Failure to comply with these regulations may result in the suspension of a group's meeting room privileges.

The applicant has the option to reschedule the meeting, and if the meeting is not rescheduled the reservation fee will be refunded to the organization renting the room.

An authorized adult representative of the organization renting the room must be in attendance at all times during the meeting. No organization may use the Library as its mailing address or for the receipt of telephone calls.

Sign-in may not be required as condition of entry to meeting. If this information is taken, organizations must secure the permission of attendees for any future use.
